

NEWS RELEASE

Media Contacts:

Jil Goebel/Jessica Seybold
Origin Communications
Tel: 719.785.9900
jil.goebel@origincom.com
jessica.seybold@origincom.com

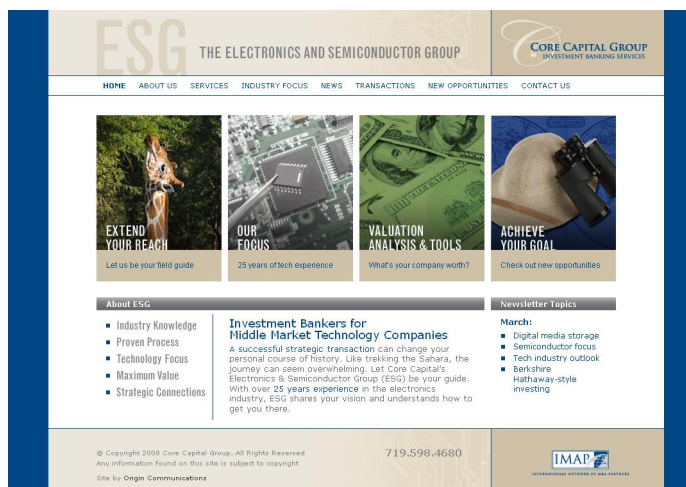

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CORE CAPITAL'S ESG LAUNCHES WEBSITE, BUSINESS DEALS RESOURCE AND BROCHURE

M&A firm provides electronics/semiconductor business opportunities at a glance

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colorado – April 28, 2008 – Core Capital's Electronics and Semiconductor Group, an investment banking firm with an electronics and semiconductor focus, has launched a new website featuring a transaction opportunities/deals resource list. The up-to-date list is intended to be a starting point for the electronics and semiconductor industry to view potential business deal opportunities.

"I'm very excited about producing this list and making it available to all interested parties," explains Loren Lancaster, managing director of Core Capital. "Now people have one resource to turn to that is updated on an on-going basis – weekly, if not daily – that will enable them to find the perfect opportunity."

The list is a major part of ESG's new website and brochure. The website and brochure feature an updated look-and-feel, and offer easy-to-find information about the company's services and extensive background in the technology industry. To view the website, visit www.esgibank.com. To download the new brochure and to sign up for ESG's informative newsletter, go to <http://www.esgibank.com/news.shtml>.

For more information on Core Capital ESG, call 719-598-4680 or email llancaster@corecapital.net.

Core Capital ESG

Core Capital's Electronics and Semiconductor Group focuses exclusively on providing a range of M&A services to middle market electronics and semiconductor companies. Core Capital is a member company of the International Network of M&A Partners (IMAP), a global partnership of 60 leading merger & acquisition advisory firms located in over 40 countries worldwide. For more information, go to www.ESGibank.com.